NOTE FOR: All RM Hands

SUBJECT: DCI's Annual Report

1. Here is a first full working draft of the DCI's Annual Report. As approved by the DCI in October, it is selective, not comprehensive. A lot of important topics are left out. Those that are in are largely a combination of the DCI's interests and the Congress'. [redacted]

25X1

2. It is uneven, of course, reflecting the uneven quality of the input I got and my own uneven experience with various parts of the intelligence business. Please identify to me places that need to be "denser" (not necessarily longer). [redacted]

3. Those of you famous for your overview talents, please read for overall tone, thrust, balance, etc., whatever your job description. [redacted]

4. Program monitors and others with specific beats please vet those sections for accuracy and other content, including a check on paragraph classifications. In many cases individual sections have already been vetted by you and/or the principal Community contributor(s); in other cases sections are now out for that purpose. Please check with me before circulating pieces further [redacted] and please don't circulate a copy of this full draft anywhere outside RM. NFIB review of a revised full draft is the next stage. 5. The present bulk can undoubtedly be cut (although the printers tell us it will shrink 8:1 in final). Those of you who like to cut please feel free to make suggestions. [redacted]

6. We need to turn around a cleaner draft before the DCI goes on leave (21-27th Dec); therefore a gross screening by Tuesday 19th would be helpful, with a finer grain review at more leisure during any of the holiday period you plan to work.
